TUESDAY SEPTEMBER 15

THE PRIMARY ELECTION

Hawaii's first primary election has come and gone. It was so strenuous that the community has not yet recovered its breath long enough to think how it likes it.

The chief result of the primary is that J. K. Kalanianaole is the Republican nominee for Delegate to Congress, and Lincoln Mc-Candless is the Democratic nominee for the same position. George R. Carter made a clean campaign for the Progressives, but Hawaii is still interested in more material things than armageddon and the higher politics. The Progressive representative at least has the satisfaction of knowing, however, that he brought a breath of fresh air into Hawaiian politics.

As between Kuhio and McCandless, there can be no choice on the part of those having material interests in Hawaii.

Whether we like the sugar planters individually or collectively, or whether we do not; the people of Hawaii cannot ignore the fact that sugar is the life of this Territory and ninety per cent of its inhabitants.

Kuhio has not done much to help protect our leading industry in the past, and there is no special reason to expect that there will be much change in this respect in the future; but at least he is running on a platform of protection to sugar, and his political associates will be those who are protectionists, and who will be disposed to give Hawaii a square deal, something that she has not thus far received at the hands of the present administration.

On the other hand, Mr. McCandless is running on a free trade platform, and has not even had the grace to say that he would personally try and do what he could to relieve Hawaii from the full force of the blow which the entire loss of the tariff on sugar will inflict on the whole of the people of this Territory.

The Advertiser does not regret its course during the primary campaign. It has clearly and without personalities presented arguments why it believed Mr. Charles Rice would have filled the office of delegate better than the present incumbent; and the arguments made, and they were then as true as gospel; but this is a world of actualities, and with the limitation of choice for Delegate to Kuhio and McCandless, The Advertiser is of the opinion that the interests of Hawaii will be best served by the election of the former.

THE REPUBLICAN TICKET

With one or two exceptions, the ticket as chosen by the Republican voters on Saturday for the November elections is very satisfactory and should be supported by the party at large. If this support be given as it should be, the present era of municipal incompetence will be wiped out and something approaching a businesslike administration of municipal affairs will be granted this long-suffering community.

If the party stays with its candidates, each one, from Kuhio down, should be elected. In only one instance did the Republican vote fall below that of the Democratic. This was in the shrievalty contest, where Rose, the incumbent, and his one Democratic opponent polled more votes between them than were polled for the four Repolled more votes between them than were polled for the four Republican candidates. When the voters commence to think, however, they will swing enough Republicans back to the party to elect "High" Henry, a thoroughly dependable man and one who will at least have some discipline in his force. He may also be depended upon to shut down some of the open gambling joints at which the present police force winks.

The Republican vote in the mayoralty fight totaled much more than the total vote for Fern and Baker, and if those who voted for Lane, Cohen, Murray and Hustace will support the winner, Lane, he will win by two thousand votes. There is no reason why he should not poll every Republican vote. Honolulu certainly has had enough of Fern.

There is every indication that there will be a good working board of supervisors for the next term, and the efforts of that board should not be nullified by having to carry the dead weight of Joe Fern. John C. Lane will work in harmony with the certain Republican majority of supervisors, and while the mayor has not very extended powers he has enough to block materially the progress the board will of a certainty desire. Honolulu had a sufficient taste of what a stubborn man trying to do petty politics can do to harm the community when Fern served his first term with a Republican majority on the board. We want no more of it.

STEAMERS TO LOS ANGELES

The sending of the steamer Manoa from Honolulu to Los An-HONOLULU REFUGEE geles direct is a move in the right direction. Everything cannot be done at once; but there can be no proper testing out of the possibilities of passenger travel between Los Angeles and Honolulu until there is a direct service from the former city to Honolulu, as well as from Honolulu to Los Angeles.

The present proposition is for the Manoa to go direct to Los Angeles and thence to San Francisco, from which point she will the Queen's Hospital, Honolulu, who return to Honolulu direct. A person in Los Angeles who wants to come to Honolulu will still, therefore, have to go to San Francisco; and, if he goes by the Manoa, he will have to wait a week

He claims the refugees from Europe the chill fogs of San Francisco. If they can come to Honolulu aboard the ship were treated like immidirect, they will do so, if not, they will stay in Southern California. grants.

The Advertiser sincerely hopes that the Matson company will see its way clear to putting on a steamer on a three-port route, viz: SPEED MANIAC FINED; from Honolulu to Los Angeles; then to San Francisco; returning thence to Los Angeles, and then back to Honolulu. This will be fair proof of what there is in the Los Angeles tourist business. A less service will not prove anything.

In the July number of his paper, The Commoner, Hon. Wm. J. Bryan, the secretary of state, in referring to a recent order of the Russian government forbidding the use of vodka in the Russian ing an automobile, was fined forty dolarmy, writes as follows:

"If the soldier must give up alcohol because it interferes with his efficiency, why should not the civilian promote his efficiency by giving it up? And if it is demonstrated that alcohol is an evil, and only an evil; if it is proven that it lessens the productive value of the citizen, who will say that the nation should look upon this great evil with indifference merely because a few people want to grow barristers who were in the act of aping rich out of a drink that is destructive? Why should we condemn his walk and gestures. "You mistake, opium, morphine and cocaine, if we are to worship at the shrine of whiskey and beer?"

Why should we condemn as was and gestures. To mistage, caronic diarrace that physicians have gestlemen, said the good astured wit, failed on, and it will cure you. For the secosting them. HAS BUSY SESSION

Eight Cases, Involving Connubial Infelicity, Are Before Circuit Judge Whitney

Although everybody made an effort to take things easy and rest up after the Saturday primary election, Judge William J. Whitney's divorce court was doing husiness yesterday at the old stand. To take effect September 30, the court granted a decree of divorce to Chun Fat from Julia Chun Fat, on the ground of the alleged commission of

The motion to modify the decree ranted heretofore in the divorce case of Lillian L, Mesic against Leverett
